

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DANIEL LLOYD,

Defendant.

8:18-CR-271

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant's Motion in which he seeks release from incarceration to home confinement due to the lack of medical care at his facility of incarceration, his desire to take care of his children, and the fact that he has "learned [his] lesson." Filing 91. These reasons are very similar to those raised in his prior motion seeking identical relief. Filing 89. The Court denied that motion because it "does not have statutory authority to direct the BOP to place Defendant on home confinement" and "cannot entertain [a] request for compassionate release until [Defendant's] administrative remedies have been exhausted." Filing 90 at 3. Defendant's new motion alleges nothing that alters the Court's prior reasoning. For these reasons and those explained in the Court's prior order (Filing 90), the Court denies Defendant's Motion.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Defendant's Motion (Filing 91) seeking release to home confinement is denied; and
2. The Clerk shall mail a copy of this Memorandum and Order to the Defendant at his last known address.

Dated this 11th day of February, 2021.

BY THE COURT:

Brian C. Buescher
United States District Judge
